Dear Melanie,

This is all the information that I sent in on Edward, except for James Tinsley's war record where Melissa referred to Zadock being her mother's only brother. I wrote on the application how I thought I proved who he was. I thought it was going to be pretty iffie. I'm not sure that's a word, but.. I just estimated the dates from the Quaker Records and the will of Edward's to Zadock. It really isn't much information, but it satisfied me.

It looks like I sent to the Archives for this military record of Edward's. I know that they didn't have it in Washington because I found the form I had sent to them. I was always going to send for more of the record's on this index, but just put off doing it. It had been so long since I had looked at it, mainly because I thought there was no way it would be accepted by the DAR. Just goes to prove you don't know until you ask.

I am sending a copy of this Quaker Record which I also sent to DAR. It looks to me like his father was disowned for participating in Rev. War.

Hope your husband recovers quickly form his ordeal. Hope to be calling you soon with Edward's #.

Love,

Laura

My grandmother (Harriet May Bartlett Northen) made some notes in 1933, counting cousins for my mother (Peg Virginia Northen)... I don't have much more myself, but located a charming old gent of 92 in the NORTHEN line who says he has a vault of family info in AL.

Grandfather (Charles Stephen Northen) descended from WILSONs, HOOKERs, and NORTHENs. Our main line of Northens is well known, but I'm missing some HOOKER/WILSON info from SC and MS.

Going backwards:
Charles Stephen NORTHEN b circa 1870, MD Emory U 1890
Thomas Mansell Northen b circa 1845 [2nd wife late in life]
Josephine Wilson (1st wife, m1868, they had 9 children)
[Antoinette Patillo, 2nd wife - no children]
William Leonard Wilson b circa 1820
Sara Ann DORMAN m circa 1846
Thomas Wilson [of SC, came West to MS with Jensie & Zadok H]
Jensie Hooker [of SC, sister of Zadok HOOKER from SC]

Zadok HOOKER "went West" from SC to MS with Jensie and his friend, Thomas Wilson. Thomas married Jensie (in MS?). Zadok had a son General Charles E. Hooker of the Confederacy. Don't know any other of these names except Jensie's son, William (above).

My grandmother (Harriet May Bartlett) is descended from the Josiah BARTLETT of NH who signed the Declaration of Independance, according to family legend I'd like to confirm also. I have a gap of about three males between Josiah and Thomas W. Bartlett, Harriet's father (Ella STEPHENSON was her mother). Harriet married CSN in Talladega, AL, but I don't know the steps from NH through St Louis before AL. Any clues welcomed!

The NORTHEN clan may be much better known to many in GA and AL, since my grandfather was well-publicized in the era of 1920-1940. The GA Governor who signed the cessession papers, William Johnathan NORTHEN is in a branch of this large clan. I have renewed contacts with the AL clan, but have no contacts with the present GA clan.

Browsing through the first several Civil War books in the Minneapolis Library didn't get me a clue about THIS Gen Hooker... what was he known for, if anything?

BTW, my grandmother's note also says that all the males of the war time (1860-65), whether Hooker, Wilson, or Northen, fought for the Confederacy.

MN> I have info on Gen. Charles E. Hooker but am running out of time
MN> today. Will post more tomorrow.

I don't have the PROOF today, but I'm confident I or we can find it. Jensie HOOKER is in my line of NORTHENs which includes a GA Governor (c1890) among other notables. Jensie married a Thomas Wilson of SC who was a pal of Zadok's who moved to MS with Zadok and Jensie c1820, according to a note made by my grandmother, Harriet Bartlett NORTHEN in 1933 (she was counting cousins for my mom who was 12 then). HBN's spelling of "Zadok" is consistent and repeated.

Since she was well-educated and a teacher, there's some significance there but I'm not sure what the spelling significance is. HBN claimed to be a direct descendant of Josiah Bartlett, signer of the Declaration of Independence and founder of the New England School of Medicine. 3 of Josiah's sons, and 7 grandsons were MDs. Many of my NORTHEN line were MDs also. That may or may not be coincidence, but it will certainly make finding them easier. It seems to mean that they were affluent enough to have lavish family records without anyone doing much with LDS, however. My initial results searching LDS Ancestral files shows almost nothing for 5 family lines which are similarly prominent and related!

FYI - Gov NORTHEN wrote a 7 volume work, "Men of Mark in GA", and I have that coming by interlibrary loan. That book may have some clues. The Gov's uncle who raised him was Peter NORTHEN who commanded a GA CSA company, later was head or treasurer of the Southern Baptist Convention, and also treasurer or something of Mercer College. My grandfather, Charles Stephen NORTHEN (MD Emory U, 1890) became quite famous c1920-1940 for his work on nutrition and soils. He is credited with "discovering" concentrated orange juice, mineral additives to foods, etc. I am named for him, as is 5 generations down another family branch. I have contact with a 92 year old CS Northen Jr in Birmingham who had a vault built into his home to contain family records. He might not be up to looking for us, but I think CSN III or IV might. FYI - CSN V is now 6 yrs old.

Delighted to hear from you! I recently updated my long TT in GenDATA and that has all sorts of contact data for me. Can you exchange files by modem rather than snail? I have 24 hour lines with several access options. That's easiest for me and I probably can help if you don't already have a good and free way to do that.

Subject: WILSON & HOOKER

My grandmother's 1933 notes are all I have, but those mention ancestors including a CSA General Charles E. Hooker who probably was from MS but his family was originally from SC. I'd like any family info or anecdotal info!

Gen. CE Hooker was the son of Zadok Hooker of SC who "went West" with his sister Jensie Hooker and his friend, Thomas Wilson, in about 1820. Thomas married Jensie and they had a son, William Leonard Wilson, born c1820 (in MS?). William married a Sara Ann Dorman c1846. William and Sara Ann's daughter Josephine married her 1st cousin Thomas Mansell Northen c1868 (son: Dr. Charles Stephen Northen). The Wilson clan shows on both sides of my grandfather's line due to a couple of marriages between cousins. Thomas Mansell Northen's mother was Vicie Ann Wilson (SC?), who was 1st cousin of Gen. Charles E. Hooker.

FYI - We know my grandfather's NORTHEN line better, but have big gaps in it. Grandfather Charles Stephen Northen, MD from Emory U c1890 and family from AL & GA, became quite well known between 1920 and 1940 or so for his work with soils and minerals (ie, vitamins). Much of his family was in/around Talladega, AL. One of that line was the Governor of GA who signed the sessation papers to join the Confederacy. For reasons and dates unknown, CSN moved to NYC where my mother was born in 1921. By 1925, they lived in FL.

My grandmother's note says that all the males of 1860-1865, whether Wilson, Hooker, or Northen, served the Confederacy. I just posted a big TT in GenDATA. Also looking for DAINGERFIELD info from Blowing Rock, NC and NYC.

South Carolina Genealogist... I need your help... I am in search of any information on Albert A. WILSON b. Jan 07, 1819. He married to Eve M. ? b. April 05, 1820 Their children were:

George W. WILSON b. 1840
Elizabeth J. WILSON b. 1842
Benjamin WILSON b. 1847 d. 1847
Clayton Clark WILSON b. April 23, 1854
William E. WILSON b. July 29, 1856
Thomas C. Clingman WILSON b. November 20, 1858
Robert Joseph Sigman WILSON b. November 28, 1859

According to the obituary of Clayton Clark Wilson the family orginated in the vacinity of the LimeStone College near Spartanburg, SC before moving to North Carolina. This much I do know, Albert came to what is now Cleveland County around 1850. According to the original Shelby N.C. city map dated December 3, 1850 he owned a town lot from which he operated a blacksmith shop in the newly formed town of Shelby. I know nothing of his ancestry nor do I know the maiden name of his wife Eve. If anyone has any knowledge of this family please let me know. Albert WILSON was my GG-Grandfather.
The family is listed in the 1850 census of Cleveland County, NC

Chuck, Charles Edward Hooker, of Jackson, MS was born April 9, 1825 in Union Dist. SC, the son of Zadock and Amelia (Allen) Hooker. He studied law at Cambridge (now Harvard) and became known as a brilliant attorney. In 1850, he was elected District Attorney in the River district. In 1861, he occupied a seat in the lower house of the MS legislature. He married Fannie Cecilia Sharkey d/o Benjamin and Frances Cecilia (Lebreton) Jennison. Fannie was the adopted d/o Judge and Mrs. William Lewis Sharkey. Charles E. Hooker resigned the MS legislature in 1861 to enter the Confederate Army. At the seige of Vicksburg, he lost his left arm. He attained the rank of Colonel of the Calvary. In 1865, Col. Hooker was elected attorney general of MS and served until 1868 when he and other State officials were removed by military authority of the Federal government. Col. Hooker was a renowned public speaker and was referred to as "the Silver-tongued Orator of the South." He served in the Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh National congresses. Col. Hooker died 7 Jan 1919 in Jackson MS. His fame was widely written about in the newspapers of the state.

I think that I have the Hooker family traced back to Thomas Hooker who died in Anne Arundel, MD ca 1684. His wife was Joane (maiden name unknown). These Hookers were Quakers. Zadock, my Susannah, and Jensie's parents were Edward and Amelia Hooker. Edward's parents were Thomas and Hannah Hooker. They moved back and forth between MD and Virginia and finally Hannah with her children ended up in the Bush River Meeting in Newberry Dist. SC. Edward Hooker was disowned from the church in 1778 for participation in the Revolutionary War.

Your information that Jensie Hooker married Thomas Wilson is very interesting to me. Susan Hooker, Zadock's sister, married James Tinsley. Their daughter Elizabeth married Foster Bobo. Susan and James, Foster and Elizabeth came to Texas in 1837. Foster Bobo died in 1851. In 1853, Elizabeth Tinsley Bobo married Mansell G. Wilson, a man from South Carolina. They moved to Claiborne County, MS which is adjacent to Copiah County which is where Zadock Hooker lived. It is very possible that Mansell G. Wilson was related to Thomas Wilson. Do you know? Also, do you know the names of any other siblings of Zadock, Jensie and Susan Hooker? I have been unable to determine when Edward and Amelia Hooker died, but believe it was before Zadock's removal to Mississippi. Any information that you can input about the Hooker family of South Carolina will be greatly appreciated.

Hope to hear from you,
Melanie Nolan

Thomas married Jensie. Jensie and her daughter Josephine WILSON and cousin Vicie Ann WILSON are in my direct NORTHEN line...on both sides due to 2 marriages of cousins!

Any CSA NORTHEN from AL or GA is likely to be a link. One became Governor, and others were notable too. CSA WILSONs and HOOKERs from SC and MS are likely to be links also.

See whether you think doing some copying would be productive! Seems prudent to just look first and estimate what might be worth copying. Stuff I found on these people on CR-ROM in my first visit to the local FHC was not worth copying at all.

Maybe, but not known for sure here yet. I still have too many gaps to know when circumstance of name is only circumstance. I do have a note that says all HOOKER, WILSON, and NORTHEN men of age in 1860-1866 fought for the Confederacy (but that same note calls the Col. a General). Similarly, my clans are prevalent and "not inconspicuous" in SC, AL, GA, MS, MO, and maybe VA also in the CW era. Gotta keep fishing!

Great info! Just one real clue in response (maybe more later: kinds rushed now):

The son of Vicie Ann Wilson and William Stephen NORTHEN (1st cousin of the NORTHEN who was Gov of GA) was Thomas Mansell NORTHEN born about 1845. Thomas Mansell NORTHEN is my great-grandfather, and had a large (9 kids, 7 had families) in Alabama near Talladega (Clay county?)...

Not at all, actually. Brent Kennedy, in his book, "The Melungeons, The Resurrection of a Proud People", tells how his very much Melungeon Great-Grandfather would tell people that he was French, Black Dutch or Black German - all very popular "code names" for eighteenth-century Melungeons, according to Dr. Kennedy. It's important to remember that Melungeons were legally described as "free persons of color" in that time and place. That meant their children were not allowed to attend schools with white children, or white churches, etc. The general society looked down on them. Altho they were wonderful looking people and that resulted in many of the European men marrying Melungeon girls!

JM> placing known Melungeon in Pennsylvania (please let me know if you JM> have) while the BD does show up there.

No, I don't know of Melungeons being in PA - altho some were in OH. I too have talked with people who say their "Black Dutch" comes from the PA Dutch (which I believe are German), and I've heard the term "PA Black Dutch".

There was a recent post from Robert Ward to Scott Fletcher stating the term Black Dutch was still in use today in the Netherlands, have

A dear elderly lady who was born in the Netherlands told me once (through her niece who I knew on a computer service) that Black Dutch means just what it sounds like. Black and Dutch. She said it came from the Moor/Spanish people who moved to the Netherlands and settled there.

Some time ago I talked with a lady who has proven Cherokee ancestors and they claimed to their townspeople to be Black Dutch... and now another computer friend tells me that her Grandfather was Black Dutch and her Grandmother was Choctaw ... and her family claims that their dark good looks don't come from the N.A. heritage but from the Black Dutch.

And then, just a few nights ago on CompuServe, a genetleman who is Muskogee-Creek Native American said that THEY are Black Dutch and that he had never heard the term outside of his tribe!

So, I believe more than ever that Black Dutch doesn't mean just one thing - it means whatever the family saying it thinks it means. It is/was blacks in Holland, a cover up for Native American or Melungeon... and who knows what in Pennsylvania. I do hope that the National Genealogical Society can come up with some definite answer, but in honesty, I don't expect there to be one.

JM> I have found so little reading material on the Melungeon and even JM> less on the BD, do you have a good source for either?

Besides what I'd said before, no... I think you will really enjoy the Na[illegible]onal Genealogical Society Quarterlies, and I know that Brent Kennedy's bo[illegible] would be fascinating for you - he has so many pictures of his own family, I think it's an excellent way to get a feel for the "look" of the Melungeons.

Good luck!

Chuck, I'm sitting here with my foot in my mouth. Disregard what I said about the discrepancy. I looked at your messagage again and realized that you had listed yourself first and then went down the line to Thomas Wilson and Jensie. Yes, Jensie could be Zadok's sister. By the way, I have seen his name spelled Zadoc, Zadock and Zadok in various court records. Now, on the 1790 census Edward had at least 4 children. On the 1800 census, he had 2 sons and 5 daughters. On the 1810, he had 4 sons and 2 daughters. In 1810, the census taker did not enumerate a woman of age to be his wife, but I have deed records that prove that he had the same wife from 1792 til 1810, and her name was Amelia. She also went by the name Milley, which could be a nickname for Amelia. After Amelia died, Edward married Margaret Leak ca 1821. Before he married her, he deeded all his worldly goods to Zadok. It appears that Edward died between 1823 and 1829. In 1822, he had moved to Laurens County from Spartanburg County. I have been told that Margaret Leak Hooker moved to Tippah Co., MS before 1850. I haven't found her on the census there. There was also a Benjamin Hooker in Spartanburg County at the same time as Edward. I don't think that he was one of Edward's sons. I sure would like to know the names of the other children of Edward and Amelia. Since we now have my Susan, Zadok and Jensie, there should be at least 3 or 4 more. I have not found any other Hooker men who could be his sons. Because SC did not register marriages until a late date, it is near to impossible to find out who many of the daughters of our SC ancestors married. Bye for now.

Cornelius Hooker 1-2-2	--
Godfrey Hooker 1-2-4	--
	Ann Hooker	11000 21010

Ann Hooker could have been widow of either of the above Hookers. In 1795, Cornelius Hooker bought 50 a. of land on Rabun Creek and sold it in 1796. There was no record of a dower release so wife's name not given. No record of Godfrey Hooker in land index. By 1829, there was only one Hooker listed in Laurens Co. State Census shows Margaret Hooker as head-of-household. Federal Census 1830 also shows Margaret Hooker.

Margaret Hooker was widow of George Leak who died in Laurens Co. 1819. She married in 1821 or 1822, one Edward Hooker. Judging by the deed of gift from Edward Hooker to his son, Zadock, he was the one who married Margaret Leak. Evidently Edward Hooker died in Laurens Co. between 1823 and 1829. There are no probate records here for him because he had disposed of his property before marriage to Margaret. George Leak had provided by will that in the event his widow re-married, his property was to be sold and proceeds divided among his children. before 1850, Margaret Hooker migrated to Tippah Co. MS. 1820 census has not been checked to show possible location of Edward Hooker.

In 1791, John McCulloch, trader, sold to Edward Hooker of Spartanburg Dist., 700 a. on south side of Enoree River. Grantor's index does not show disposal of this land. It may have been sold by Sheriff at some later date.

In 1872, Charles E. Hooker of Hinds Co. MS sold a tract of land in Laurens Co. SC which he had previously purchased--purchase date not given.

The above covers land entries for Hooker. There are no entries in Probate Records.

Have no data as to whether or not the above Edward Hooker is the same as mentioned in Bush River Quaker records or the one who married in 1778. Census of 1800 shows no older female in the household of Edward Hooker. If correct, he may have had children by two wives before his final marriage to Margaret Leak.

Anna.....thanks for your reply to my post. I thank you in advance for taking my information to the next Genealogy meeting.

I have run into new info to narrow down my research there but still need to nail it all down. The following info was sent to Melanie Nolan. Please print out and carry it to the meeting if you can.

Please provide me with information on joining the Genealogy group there. This is what I have been waiting for.....knew it would finally happen some day.....Glad to have a connection in Spartanburg.

Please.....if I can do something for you or anyone there...just give a shout.....I owe you one!

Mrs. Annie Hicks
Eutaw,Ala.

My dear Mrs. Hicks,

I understand you are a grandaughter of Edward Hooker Lamb and I am a great grandaughter of Benjamin H. Lamb, an older brother of Edward Hooker. I have been working for a number of years on the histiry of the Lamb family but have not been able to find out who the parents of Benjamin H. and Edward and the others were. If I can find out the names of their parents I have some one in SC. trying to help me and he has a lot of information he says on the Lambs way back but I have to connect my line to where he can take it up.

As you may know the other brothers of Edward Hooker besides Benjamin H.(born in 1811) were William Hooker(born in 1828 and went to CAL. in 1849) and Jesse Mire(born in 1830 and went to Texas) and a sister Sara Carolyn(born in 1819). Some say there also wa a brother Sam but I don't know anything about him.

Some people have told me they came from Union Co. South Carolina to Ala. and named the settlement there Union. Others say they came from Spartanburg Co. of course these counties are close together. I have been told the father was married twice and these chrildren had some sort of falling out with the father and left home and that he did not come to Ala.

There was a Jesse Lamb in Spartanburg county who died between Sep 25,1837 when he made his will and June 4,1837 when procedures were begun. In his will he did not name the children but said his wife Elrey Lamb was pregnant then and named his brother administrator of his estate. On Nov.4,1837 the minor children Edward and Carolyn asked for a gurdian be appointed for them. They were the minors of Susanah Wilder (deceased).

Any light you can shed on any of this I will greatly appreciate.

Miss. Lois Lamb

Susan, there was also a Jesse C. Lamb brother of Jesse M. my ancestor. He also went to Texas.

This is a long winded thing....hope to hook-up with other Lambs.

Betty, Thank you for the information. Believe me, you have been helpful by heading me in the direction of William and Mary Newby Trotter as the parents of Josiah. This is new information to me. Also, the information connecting Trotters to the Macy line is new and interestig. Joseph Trotter, the father of Rachel, was apparently a brother to my gg grandfather Edward.

Subject: HOOKER data

Thanks, John, for the HOOKER pages from "Baltimore County Families, 1659 - 1759". I asked the Md Hist Soc for the chart and got it just last week. But--this- is a lot more readable.

My GGGfather Richard HOOKER is on the chart but not in these pages. He was b 1776, d 1831, left a will (which I have) and m 1806 Nancy TALLMAN, who is listed in Spraker's "The Boone Family", Wiseman's "Pioneer Period and Pioneer People of Fairfield County, Ohio", and other books. She (Nancy) was a first cousin twice removed of Daniel BOONE, and a third cousin of Pres Abraham LINCOLN, which may be how her line got such publicity.

I'm about convinced my Richard was born an orphan. I have never found any sign of any parent, altho some say he was "related" or "a cousin" to these other HOOKERs. His name is inserted on Cary's chart with a dotted line and a list of his 12 children, and a note at the opposite margin that "Mrs ?. Ely says he was b. 1776 11/9, d 1831, m 1806 Nancy Tallman. The dots seem to be connected to a line of the children of Richard HOOKER & Martha BARNEY, between Richard Jr and Samuel, who were born in 1774 and 1784.

Some of this is new stuff, and I do appreciate it, but some of it knew before, mostly from Wiseman's book. So I'm still descended from a cousin of all these so well-documented HOOKERs.

So thanks for your interest, and your help.

Sincerely, Hooker
